CHICAGO DAILY PRESS AND TRIBUNE.

BY PRESS AND TRIBUNE CO. CHICAGO, MONDAY MORNING, NOVEMBER 1, 1858. VOLUME XII. NUMBER 104.

PRESS AND TRIBUNE.

MONDAY MORNING, NOVEMBER 1, 1858.

Republican County Nominations.

FOR REPRESENTATIVE IN THE LEGISLATURE,
First District—VAN H. HIGGINS, S. L. BAKER.
Fifth District—EBENEZER PECK, CASPAR BUTZ.

FOR SHERIFF,
JOHN GRAY, of Jefferson.

FOR CORONER,
WILLIAM JAMES, of Barrington.

Colfax's Appointments.

SCHUYLER COLFAX, of Indiana, the eloquent advocate of Free Labor will address the Republicans and old Line Whigs at the following places on the days mentioned opposite each:

Peoria Monday P. M.....November 1
Pekin, Monday night.....November 1

Let there be rousing turn outs at all the above places of the friends of Old Abe.

Farnsworth at Batavia.

Hon. J. F. Farnsworth will address the people of Batavia, Kane county, this (Monday) evening.

Grand Rally at Princeton.

Gov. Chase of Ohio, and Gen. Ashley of Toledo, will address the freemen of Bureau county on Monday P. M., Nov. 1st. Let there be a turn-out en masse of the people.

LAST GREAT TURN-OUT FOR Lincoln and Free Labor!

GRAND TORCH-LIGHT PROCESSION TO-NIGHT!

COME ONE—COME ALL!

The friends of Free Labor, without distinction of party, are invited to join in a Torch-light Procession this (Monday) evening.

The following partial programme has been agreed upon by the executive Committee:

WARD MARSHALS.

1st Ward—Benj. H. Chadborn. 5th Ward—C. H. Gaubert.
2d Ward—Wm H. Ealy. 6th Ward—Wm. M. Egan.
3d Ward—Cyrus Keeler. 7th Ward—A. J. Hessing.
4th Ward—Samuel E. Key. 8th Ward—A. K. Hunnell.
9th Ward—G. B. Carpenter.
10th Ward—Samuel mug.

CHIEF MARSHAL:
CAPT. R. K. HOLLAND.

The Republicans of each Ward are requested to meet at their own Headquarters, and march under the direction of their Marshal to the foot of Lake street.

The torches are to be lighted simultaneously at 8 o'clock, at the places ordered by the Ward Marshal.

Every Republican is expected to be at the place of rendezvous for his Ward at 7 o'clock precisely.

PLACES OF RENDEZVOUS.

1st Ward—Corner of State and Lake streets.
2d Ward—Corner of Wasnington and Clark streets.
3d Ward—Engine House, near Washington street.
4th Ward—Illinois House, 270 South Wells street.
5th Ward—Old Engine House.
6th Ward—Warrington's Foundry.
7th Ward—Frederick Fieldman's.
8th Ward—North Market Hall.
9th Ward—No. 8 Engine House.
10th Ward—Samuel Rugg's.

Each Ward has a separate band of music.

Each Ward has its separate depot for torches.

For further particulars, inquire of the Ward Marshals.

Each man is expected to march with his own Ward.

The procession will disband at the Metropolitan Hall, where there will be a further communication from the Executive Committee, and also political speaking.

Signs of Victory.

Let our friends be assured. They may enter into the contest to-morrow with the most confident anticipations of victory. There is no well-founded or reasonable doubt that Illinois will speak in favor of freedom. The battle has been long, and at first the issue was doubtful; but daily, since the struggle began, has the Republican cause gained strength in the minds and consciences of the people. Never have the truths to which we hold and the policy that we advocate and defend, been so dear to the masses as they are now. Never, we believe, have they been so anxious to work for those truths and that policy as they are to-day. But tomorrow comes the tug. Republicans, are you prepared to give the day to our sacred cause? Be assured that with the effort you can and must put forth, the victory is yours—a victory in Cook County, and a glorious and ever memorable victory in the State. Close up the ranks and sound the charge!

☞ COME TO THE GREAT TORCH-LIGHT PROCESSION TO-NIGHT.

"A Thousand Secret Policemen"

Snarleyow gets off a monstrous lie in yesterday's (Saturday) morning paper. Here is what he says:

"The Mayor of this city was actively engaged yesterday (Saturday) in swearing in secret policemen to prevent Democrats from voting on the day of election. Among others who were summoned to appear at the Mayor's office for this purpose, was Mr. P. Bauer, who lives at 202 Buffalo street. Mr. Bauer went to the Mayor's office, where he found some sixty others, whom the City Clerk and Mayor were engaged in swearing in as secret policemen. Each man was required to take an oath that he would vote the Republican ticket, in addition to the usual policeman's oath. Mr. Bauer declined to take this oath, and of course was not appointed.

In answer to his inquiries, Mr. Bauer was informed that ONE THOUSAND of these secret policemen would be appointed, as the Mayor was bound to carry the city for the Republican ticket. One hundred men are to be sent into each ward to "spot" every Democrat, and prevent him from voting if possible. If these means fail, each man is provided with a club, and doubtless his secret instructions will be to use it."

Now, see how a plain statement will put down this dirty libeller.

1st. Neither the Mayor, nor any officer under him swore in any policemen, secret or otherwise, on Saturday.

2d. None were sworn in yesterday.

3d. None will be sworn in until this afternoon.

4th. No policemen has taken an oath to support the Republican or any other ticket; nor will any such oath be administered, nor pledge nor promise required of any man.

5th. The special police that may be appointed will be public officers—wearing the insignia of their office so that all may see and know them.

6th. No such man as "P. Bauer" was "summoned to appear at the Mayor's office," for that purpose, or any other; and according to the Directory, no such man as P. Bauer lives at 202 Buffalo street.

7th. P. Bauer found no "sixty others, for any number of men, being sworn in as policemen by the Mayor or City Clerk. He received no answer to inquiries, that one thousand secret policemen were being sworn, &c. In short, the whole story in the Times is a willful and deliberate forgery, without even the shadow of truth to support it.

ONE DAY TO FREEDOM.

Every man in Illinois owes one day to Freedom. Give it to morrow, with all your heart, and mind, and soul, and strength.

LAST GUN FROM THE CENTRE

Immense Demonstration at Springfield for Lincoln and Free Labor.

[Correspondence of the Press and Tribune.]
SPRINGFIELD, Saturday, Oct. 30th 1858.

The greatest demonstration ever seen in the Centre, is now traversing our streets. Enormous delegations from Bloomington, Jacksonville, Decatur, Carlinville and other points. Cheers for Lincoln and Trumbull are heard from one end of the city to the other. Put down Old Sangamon for 400 majority for Freedom. H.

Not So!

S. S. Hayes, on last Saturday night, in Light Guard Hall, asserted before a large crowd, that Mayor Haines had appointed 1,000 special policemen, and made each one take an oath that he would support the Republican ticket. Now what will Mr. Hayes think of himself when he learns that at the time he was making this statement Mayor Haines has not appointed or sworn in a single special policeman! No extra police force will be created until this evening.

SOUTH DIVISION.

VOTE FOR VAN H. HIGGINS AND S. L. BAKER.

Jimmy Jones Addresses Free White Laboring Men.

Jimmy Jones, the hangman, who has come into Illinois to influence the votes of white laboring men, in favor of his co-laborer Douglas, now the President of the Charleston and Memphis Railroad, and during his term of office, there was a clause inserted in all the contracts forbidding the employment of any other than slave labor in the construction of the work. This is the beautiful bird who comes here to profess friendship for free white laboring men.

☞ COME TO THE GREAT TORCH-LIGHT PROCESSION TO-NIGHT.

Great Meeting at Metropolitan Hall Saturday Night.

The friends of free labor kept up an immense enthusiastic meeting at Metropolitan Hall until about midnight Saturday night.

The meeting was addressed by Hon. Mr. Thompson, formerly member of Congress from Kentucky. It was a most able and conclusive speech, and it is greatly to be regretted that it had not been made at an earlier part of the campaign.

The meeting was also addressed by Messrs. Arnold, Bross, Wentworth, Lumbard, and Jones.

The meeting adjourned about eleven o'clock, to meet at Metropolitan Hall again on Monday night.

Massachusetts Men, Attention.

S. S. Hayes, Esq., a Douglas candidate for the Legislature, in a speech the other night, wherein his buck-wheat cake policy was again elaborated, but violent on the slavery question, and declared, as we are informed, that Massachusetts ought to be blotted out of the map of the Union—that the entire South and the whole of the Confederacy was unit to be a member of the Confederacy along with Mississippi and South Carolina! Massachusetts men will be sure to remember Mr. Hayes!

Banking and Collection Laws.

The Republican candidates for the Legislature in this county have received a communication from several mercantile firms propounding interrogatories as to the course they will pursue in the Legislature touching questions of finance and collection laws. We learn that these interrogatories have been replied to in a manner satisfactory to the parties who made them.

NORTH AND WEST DIVISIONS.

VOTE FOR EBENEZER PECK AND CASPAR BUTZ.

COME TO METROPOLITAN HALL.

After the great torch light procession to-night, RALLY AT METROPOLITAN HALL.

In case of very unfavorable weather the procession will not take place, and the meeting at the Hall will commence at the usual hour.

Send us the Returns.

We trust that our friends in every part of the State will be prompt in forwarding us election returns at the earliest moment. In sending us the vote on county officers please specify the name of each candidate voted for, as we are only in possession of the names and politics of the candidates for the Legislature. By a little effort on the part of our friends in each locality the result will be much earlier known.

Vote for Peck and Butz.

No two men in their district could have been nominated for the Legislature who could do their constituents better service than EBENEZER PECK and CASPAR BUTZ. Both are men of ability, of steadfast faith in the Republican cause, and of deserved influence among their peers. That they will be triumphantly elected we have no doubt. That, when in the Legislature, they will shame those who have prophesied evil things, and act in good faith, intelligently and industriously for those who sent them, we devoutly believe. Vote for Peck and Butz. Vote early!

BE EARLY AT THE POLLS TO-MORROW.

Let every Republican in the city deposit his ballot before noon to-morrow. COME EARLY AND WORK ALL DAY.

The President after Douglas.

It will be seen by our dispatches that the President is about to issue a proclamation, calling upon the Federal officials to use the utmost vigilance in breaking up and defeating all filibustering expeditions. This is a direct blow at Douglas. Let the Times howl! Let the New Orleans Delta, also for Douglas, howl in answer.

DREADFUL ACCIDENT ON THE BUFFALO AND NEW YORK CENTRAL R. R.

FIVE PERSONS KILLED.

MANY DANGEROUSLY WOUNDED.

[From the Buffalo Commercial, 29.]

We regret to be obliged to announce another of those dreadful railroad casualties, by which several persons were killed outright, many more seriously injured, and a still greater number more or less disabled by contusions and cuts.

The night express train from New York, coming West, met with an accident this morning, about nine o'clock, about a mile east of Conesus, by which the engine-tender, baggage and two passenger cars were smashed up, involving a loss of five lives, besides inflicting dangerous and serious wounds upon others.

The train was running at the usual speed, the track being on an ordinary ditch embankment, a few feet above the level of the country. The passenger and baggage cars, it was found, were on the track, and before the speed of the engine could be checked, they were completely wrecked, the material composing them being scattered over considerable space. The engine remained upon the track, the spreading of which caused the dreadful calamity.

The accident was soon telegraphed east and west, and medical and other aid was promptly dispatched to the scene of the accident, it is hoped in time to be of avail to some of the injured persons.

THE KILLED.

The following five persons were instantly killed, some of them being dreadfully mutilated:

O. Lord, a driver from New York city.
S. M. Reed, Greene, Chenango, Co.
A woman and infant, who are unknown.

THE SERIOUSLY WOUNDED.

H. M. Valentine, New York city.
Elias Kolsem, do.
J. R. Paddock, Terre Haute, Ind.
David Treewellenger, Greene Co., N. Y.
Mrs. David Treewellenger, do.
Mathias Bauer, N. Y. Mills.
W. Willis, St. Johnsville, N. Y.
Wm. McEwen, Ashtabula, O.

Several other persons are badly wounded, whose names we have not learned, and the number slightly hurt—that is, entailing nothing worse than temporary illness and inconvenience—we do not know, but it is probably considerable, though there were but two passenger cars in the train. None of the employees are mentioned among either the killed or injured. By to-morrow we shall probably learn the particulars of this horrible affair—the first that ever occurred on this road.

Since the Buffalo, New York and Erie Road has been run, until this accident took place, no passenger was ever killed, an employee having lost his life by an accident which occurred some time since. Such record is rare, and adds to the regret that this fatal casualty has occurred. Some time has elapsed since even a slight accident happened on this road, either on the Hornellsville or Corning track.

Dreadful Accident—Fall of a House Roof and Wall—Four men Injured, One Killed.

[From the St. Louis Democrat, Oct. 30th.]

At half-past three o'clock yesterday afternoon the roof and upper walls of a new brick building on the south side of Washington avenue, between Fifteenth and Sixteenth streets, suddenly and disastrously gave way. The edifice was of two and a half stories, and was in process of construction by Mr. John Sexton, for Mr. Wilkinson Brien. The laying on of a slate roof was nearly completed, and the last of the hundred four employees of Mr. Patrick Naughton, slater, were still engaged upon the building. As the roof gave way, the front and rear walls were pressed out as far down as the second floor, and several feet of the western wall fell down. By retaining his place upon the roof, so far as possible, Mr. Thomas Haynes escaped with little injury, except a contused hip. Mr. Thomas Gregahan was thrown inside with the wreck, and his legs and body were severely contused. Mr. Jas. Bun, of Waterford, had one of his feet. It is feared he cannot live. Mr. Michael Dermody had his face horribly broken; the lower jaw was divided, and the throat mangled with knife and shoe. Peter Bun had his arms and ribs bruised, and received a severe cut over the eye. Gregahan and Dermody have no families, and were conveyed to the City Hospital.

This catastrophe was evidently the result either of singular carelessness or fiendish design. We cannot for an instant conceive it intended, but the disastrous neglect displayed by it is of a character truly amazing. We learn that a certain gentleman had contracted to do the framing of the building for $1,000. The latter had confidently employed him more or less for several years, and expresses great surprise that the ceiling joists of this roof were left unpinned. They were merely set in the brick, and not otherwise secured. We are also informed, by a builder who has visited the scene and inspected the wreck, that there was no ridge-board for the rafters, and that they were not secured by braces. We can scarcely credit the statement credibly made to us, that any of the plate of the roof were not fastened at the centre by nail or tie of any kind, but simply by tenon and mortise. An official investigation and report will probably be made to the coroner, and will be looked for with the utmost of monstrously criminal carelessness which the disaster reveals.

Gen Sickles were at work upon the roof yesterday forenoon, but providentially failed to return in the afternoon, or the catastrophe would doubtless be still more serious.

We have purposely omitted the name of the former alluded to, trusting that a calmer investigation will present his neglect in a less revolting light.

Since writing the above, we are pained to learn that Gregahan has died at the City Hospital, of his injuries. This being true, the affair assumes the shape of manslaughter.

Awful Tragedy at Dragoon Springs, Arizona.

Three persons murdered by Mexican boys—Mr. James or William Long, of Illinois, among the Killed.

A correspondent of the Memphis Bulletin, writing from Arizona on the 17th ult., gives the details of a most terrible murder and robbery, one of the most atrocious. The deed was accomplished by three Mexicans, youths from fifteen to eighteen years of age, in the employ of the company. Mr. St. John, the gentleman in charge of the station, who was one of the survivors, says:

On Wednesday night, about 12 o'clock, he saw two of the above mentioned youths enter the room opposite to the one in which he was sleeping—he (Mr. St. John) was about half awake and at once roused himself, thinking to detect the boys in some act of petty theft, when he heard a heavy blow which killed the old gentleman lying in front of the corral, descending upon him, and in a moment saw by the indistinct light, the wretches commence their fiendish work on the other men. He at once sprang to his feet and seized his double barreled gun, and leveled it at the miscreants, and just as he was about to pull the trigger, his left arm was nearly lopped off by a blow from an axe in the hands of the wretch who killed the old man in front of the corral; this blow was followed up by one making a slight incision in the left breast, and wounding his left arm in another place, and by still another, inflicting a terrible gash in his right leg. Finding as he was, Mr. St. John wheeled, and seizing a Colt's repeater, fired, whereupon the cowardly murderers fled, only to return to the scene of their fiendish exploit an hour afterward, again to be frightened away by another shot from St. John's pistol.

From that awful hour, says the correspondent, until the time of our arrival at Dragoon Springs, Mr. St. John had endured with heroic fortitude the pangs of hunger and thirst and the excruciating pain of his wounds, and had even dragged himself to the gate of the corral to let out the animals that they might seek food and water. When we reached Dragoon Springs, therefore, we found the dead bodies of Mr. James Bun, of Watertown, Jefferson county, New York, and of one Cunningham, of Iowa, Mr. Silas St. John, of New York city, in the above described condition, and one James or Wm. Long, of Bloomington, Ill., with a fractured skull.

MONDAY, Sept. 20, 1858.

Two messengers arrived on yesterday from Dragoon Springs, bringing the gratifying intelligence of the improved condition of Mr. St. John. Dr. Irwin had arrived there in time to perform successfully the operation of taking off the wounded arm. He found it necessary to take it off at the shoulder. The fracture was very complicated, and extended to the joint. This severe and painful operation was performed without the use of anodyne or stimulant, and my informant, who witnessed it, speaks of Mr. St. John's power of endurance and presence of mind as being very remarkable. Dr. I. neglected to mention above that the man Long died on the day after I left Dragoon Springs.

TELEGRAPHIC NEWS.

Washington Intelligence.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 30.—The President has prepared and will forthwith issue a proclamation, in the usual form, for the prevention of Filibustering expeditions to Central America.

Mr. Butterfield arrived here to-day, with a view to obtain protection to the California overland mail, which he says could be rendered at a comparatively small expense, and which would enable him to shorten the time of transit to twenty-two days.

Gen. Pierz and suite dined with the President and members of the Cabinet to-day, at the residence of Gen. Cass, by invitation.

Gen. Pierz to-day delivered to the Secretary of State a letter from President Martinez apologizing for the offensive allegations against the United States, in the manifesto on the occasion of the contract formed with M. Belly. Our government has no complaint to make with regard to France in connexion with her movements in Central America.

A new contract has been entered into by Gen. Jesup and a Philadelphia company, represented by J. C. Van Dyke, for a Nicaragusn transit. The administration know nothing officially of the transit.

The report that George N. Sanders had gone to Kansas on business of the President's and is likely to succeed to the Governorship, has no foundation in truth.

The Attorney General has given an opinion in reference to the proper construction of the act of June last, which provides that the title to a land warrant issued after the death of a person who had applied for it according to the prescribed forms, shall rest in the widow if there be one, and if there be no widow the heirs and legatees of the claimants. He draws the following conclusions:

First, That a warrant issued after the death of a claimant who has left a widow and children is for the widow's benefit alone.

Second, If the deceased claimant leaves a widow and two sets of children, the entrant enures to the benefit of her heirs and legatees, and

Thirdly, The heirs are those who are so declared by the law of claimants' domicil.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 30.—The War Department has received official accounts of two late battles in Washington Territory. Gen. Clarke presumes the success narraced therein is a surety of peace with the Indians encountered on the Spokan Plains, the red men having been soundly beaten, and some frightened into earnest overtures for peace.

The contents of Lieut. Taylor's letters are all thus confirmed.

The Union this morning, speaking by authority, says the policy of the United States is not to acquire Central America or any part of it, but to open the Isthmus route, and have it free to all the world. It says that it is only fair to suppose that the covenants made with our people shall be enforced.

Not only has Costa Rica made ample apology to our Government, but received General Lamar with great cordiality. He will attend the convention of the Central American States about to be held, with a view to effecting the confederation thereof.

Senator Seward Speaks.

ROME, N. Y., Oct. 29.—Hon. William H. Seward addressed a very large meeting here this evening, in favor of the Republican party and its candidates and its principles. He concluded his speech, which was about an hour in length, with assurances that the election would result in the complete rout of the Democratic retainers of slavery in the State of New York, and throughout the free States.

Hotel Washed Away.

NEW YORK, Oct. 30.—The Point Comfort Hotel, at Cony Island, was carried away by the high tide of Monday evening. The inmates escaped, taking refuge in the neighboring hills. The bath houses and sheds attached to the Ocean House were also carried away.

Fatal Casualty.

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 30.—Yesterday afternoon the roof and upper walls of a brick house in the course of erection on Washington avenue, fell, severely injuring five workmen, one of whom, Thomas Gaggon, has since died.

EYE AND EAR.—As examples of the skill of Dr. Underwood, as an oculist and aurist, two very curious and interesting cases have come under our observation. They both reside in the city and the truth of what we state can be substantiated at any time by those who feel an interest in the matter.

The first case is that of Miss Rachel Minton, whose sight has been greatly impaired—at times totally blind—from a scrofulous inflammation of her eyes of twelve years duration. Physicians have been sought in vain for relief, and her sight perfectly restored, by Dr. Underwood's skill. Persons desirous of testing the truth of this statement can obtain all the information they desire by calling on Mr. Keach, her brother-in-law, at the Marine Bank.

The other case, not less interesting than Miss Minton's, is that of Mary Buell, corner of Randolph street and Wabash avenue. She is sixteen years old, and has been totally deaf from her infancy, and of course unable to talk. She has, by the skill of Dr. Underwood, been so far restored as to be able to hear a person speaking to her across the room, and is making good progress in learning to talk. Her almost entire restoration is placed beyond a doubt.

We have no desire to exist the Doctor to extravagant terms. His own works praise him. And to those we refer all who have a personal or kindred interest in the cases which he treats with so much skill and success.

And hereafter his Regulator will be on TIME. Mr. HOES not only prides himself on keeping Time, but also in selling Watches that do the same.

SINGER'S SEWING MACHINE—PRICE REDUCED from $125 to $50 and $75—A GREAT CHANGE.—The introduction of the Sewing Mac ine has worked a great change in many branches of industry, and is being now very generally introduced into families. The only objection to them having been their hitherto great cost. Messrs. Singer & Co., the origin l perfecters, and whose machines have obtained a world-wide celebrity as being the best in use, have commendably reduced the prices of their Family Machines nearly 50 per cent., thus placing them within the reach of all. FREEMEN, REMEMBER.

Douglas declared at Quincy that his political system contemplated THAT SLAVERY SHOULD EXIST FOREVER. This the Chicago Times dashes in great wrath and with a considerable volley of blackguardism. Let us see. We have before us the Chicago Times of Oct. 15th, containing the Quincy debate. We find in Mr. Douglas' speech two parts of a syllogism, from which we ask any being in world endowed with reasoning faculties, to draw the conclusion:

I. Mr. Douglas is elaborating his "Popular Sovereignty" delusion at some length, and says:

"If we will stand by that principle, then Mr. Lincoln WILL FIND that this Republic can exist, forever divided into free and slave States, as our fathers made it."

Observe; Mr. Lincoln "will find" that slavery can exist FOREVER. The assumption contained in the words "as our fathers made it," is a shameful falsehood. The fathers of the government no more made slavery than they made the soil on which it existed. But that is immaterial. We submit to any honest man that there is no difference of meaning between saying that "slavery can exist forever," and that "the Republic can exist divided into free and slave States." The one involves the other necessarily and inevitably.

II. In the same speech and in an adjacent column, Mr. Douglas combats Mr. Lincoln's line of policy for the ultimate extinction of slavery by making all the Territories free; and he employs the following language:

He, (Mr. Lincoln,) first tells you that he would prohibit slavery everywhere in the territories. He would thus confine slavery within its present limits. When the slave gets it confined, and surrounded, so that it cannot spread, the natural laws of increase will go on until the negroes will be so plenty that they cannot live on the soil. He will then have the old starvation scenes among them, and by starving them to death, he will put slavery in the course of ultimate extinction. If he is not going to interfere with slavery in the States, but intends to interfere and prohibit it in the territories, and thus smother slavery out, it naturally follows, that he can extinguish it only by extinguishing the negro race, for his policy would drive them to starvation. This is the humane and Christian remedy that he proposes for the great crime of slavery.

Logic—Mr. Douglas is opposed to having slavery limited to its present geographical bounds, and in favor of having it extended to new territory where "the natural laws of increase" can go on without the danger of creating a famine.

—The proposition is: 1st. Mr. Douglas' "principle" contemplates the existence of slavery forever in the States. 2d. He is in favor, no matter for what reason, of extending it into the Territories, which will of course become States in due time, and come under the guardianship and blessings of his "principle." Conclusion: Mr. Douglas declares that his policy contemplates THAT SLAVERY SHALL EXIST FOREVER. There is no escaping this logic.

Mr. Lincoln made this charge on him in direct terms both at Quincy and Alton, and HE DID NOT ATTEMPT TO DENY IT.

Voters Remember.

That the Dred Scott decision proclaims the doctrine that the Constitution carries slavery into every Territory of the United States in spite of the people. Remember that Stephen A. Douglas has endorsed that decision everywhere, all the time, from top to bottom, from beginning to end.

Mississippi or Illinois—Which?

If the slaves, the use and benefit of whom Mr. Douglas enjoys, were planted down on some prairie in Illinois, where they could be seen by the Senator's constituents; if their backs scarred by the lash, their bodies pinched by hunger, their limbs bent by excessive overwork, were exposed where they could be gazed upon by the free men of this State, his chances of representing free Illinois in the councils of the Nation would be hopelessly destroyed. But let it be remembered that though these things are unseen here, they exist elsewhere, and that the braggart is no less censurable for the manacles which his bondsmen wear, and the stripes with which they are marked, in Mississippi, than if they were under the eye-sight of every man in Illinois. The facts remain the same wherever the slaves may be. That the Senator has farmed them out at so much per head, to a speculator in unpaid labor; that he derives from their toil the cash with which he is endeavoring to convince the people that Slavery ought to exist forever; that he assumes the airs of a nabob and spends like a President out of the fund which their miseries create—should make no difference. His is the responsibility as well as the profit.

It is for the people of Illinois to say by their votes whether they desire to be represented as freemen on free soil, by one whose interest is indissolubly connected with the extension and perpetuity of the accursed institution, or whether they desire to send to Washington a man who has no affiliations, direct or contingent, with the damnable thing—who is heart and soul devoted to the system and institutions which have made Illinois and the free North-west what they are. Shall we vote for the policy of Mississippi or for the good of the State in which we live? That's the question. Voters, we wait for your answer!

Voters, Remember!

That Stephen A Douglas defended all the armed invasions of Kansas from Missouri. Remember that he vilified the defenders of their own homes in that Territory from first to last. Remember that he violently abused Senator Sumner for charging upon David R. Atchison the crime of one of these armed invasions.

What Douglas Has Done for Illinois.

An interior Douglas organ exultingly and sneeringly exclaims:

"The Little Giant has already done more for Illinois than all the Black Republicans put together ever did or ever will do. Let us, as a part of the Little Giant State, show by our votes on Tuesday next our appreciation of him."

Ditto to the invocation of the little organ of the Little Giant. Let us enumerate some of the more valuable of those distinguished services:

He has fastened an indelible stigma upon the fair fame of Illinois by forging her indorsement to the policy of slavery-extension.

He has for years misrepresented his constituents in the Senate, and then added insult to injury.

He has done more than any thousand minor demagogues to degrade our State politics, by substituting, so far as in him lay, a paltry, deceptive game for an honorable emulation for the advancement of the public good.

He has set a most pernicious example to our ambitious young men, from which the State will suffer long years after he shall have been deprived of the capability for further mischief.

In every public position which he has occupied, but more especially in the Senate, he has shown himself a brazen charlatan, whose only claim to statesmanship has been based upon unbounded audacity and unscrupulous cunning.

One thing, however, we have to thank him for, and that is for assuming so transparent a disguise that no honest man can mistake his character. A host of such will show their "appreciation" of it to-morrow.

Voters, Remember

That Mr. Douglas is opposed to appropriations for the improvement of rivers and harbors, but would levy a special tax for that purpose upon the producers and consumers of the country—upon the ship-owners, the merchants, the manufacturers and the farmers.

Voters, Remember

That throughout this campaign Mr. Douglas has steadily refused to say whether he would or would not indorse a Supreme Court decision declaring that the Constitution carries slavery into all the States, as well as the Territories. Give him an answer to that question.

Jimmy Jones, the Hangman.

Jimmy Jones, the hangman, who wished that any man in Kansas who should speak or write against Slavery in that Territory, might, instead of being sent to the penitentiary, be hanged by the neck until he was cold, dead, dead, has come to Chicago to make a speech in favor of Douglas. Mr. Jones is one of the partners in the manufacture of the nostrum—Patent Popular Sovereignty—and he cannot content himself with writing certificates, setting forth the wonderful virtues of the new fangled stuff; he comes here to add his oral to his written testimony; but we will wager a farthing, that, in all his harangue, he will keep out of sight the fact that he has an interest in the profits of the shop out of which the nostrum comes. To go into the arrangement, he abandoned the old Whig business entirely—sold out lock, stock and barrel,—and has embraced, with an appearance of great cordiality, the men whom he had always stigmatised as the veriest wretches unhanged. Elsewhere we give a brief record of his opinions, by which the reader will learn what a beautiful bird this delinct Tennessee Senator is. Read the record, and come to the conclusion, as we have, that Mr. Jones should go straight back to his niggers, and talk to them. He certainly is not the man to address free white men in Illinois.

The Prospect.

Surveying the field as it now lies before us, with late and reliable intelligence from every inch of debatable ground, we say to our friends that the prospect of a glorious triumph to-morrow is of the most encouraging character. Let our friends buckle on their armor this morning, and not take it off again until the close of the polls to-morrow, and on Wednesday morning, we doubt not, we shall have the proud satisfaction of chronicling a brilliant Republican victory.

Voters, Remember

That a vote for Peck and Butz is two votes for Lincoln, and two against Douglas.

A vote for Van Higgins and Baker is two votes for Lincoln, and a vote for Haven and Sherman is two against him.

A vote for Haven and Sherman, or Hayes and Huck is a vote for carrying Slavery everywhere, and for a policy that contemplates that Slavery will last forever; and a vote for Van Higgins and Baker, or Peck and Butz is a vote for keeping the Territories for free white laborers—for our children and our children's children.

One Word to Laborers.

There is but one issue in this prolonged and bitter contest. It is not, Shall the white and black races amalgamate? It is not, Shall the people of the Territories regulate their own affairs in their own way? It is this, SHALL LABOR BE DEGRADED? Shall the labor of the free white man, in the Territories, be put on an equality with the labor of the unpaid, unclothed and badly fed negro slave? That's the practical question that lies at the bottom of the anti-Slavery movement and the pro-slavery agitation in all their phases—that and no other. Laborers of Illinois, native and adopted—you men who till the earth, build and operate railroads, navigate canals, fill our machine shops and manufactories,—all you who toil with the hands,—what say you? which side are you on? Lincoln is the representative of the white man, free labor and free soil; Douglas is the candidate of Mississippi, and her policy. Choose between them.

Voters, Remember!

That Chief Justice Taney and Stephen A. Douglas were the first men in all the world who declared that the Declaration of Independence was not intended to include "ALL MEN."

Irishmen and Protestant Irishmen.

We have received the following communication, to which we cheerfully give place:

To the Editors of the Press and Tribune:—When Irishmen are spoken of as being ready for every bad word and work and as influenced solely by those who are destitute of principle, I think it unfair that Irish Protestants should be included in the number, and that a distinction is not made between the two parties—Catholic and Protestant. I feel justified in saying that Irish Protestants are as loyal a people as there are in the world, and are as well acquainted with the difference between them and their countrymen of another faith as they need be. I wish the Americans were as much so. I hope they are getting their eyes open. When Irish are mentioned as being sent to different parts to vote, I think the writers should say that Irish Catholics are meant.

REPUBLICAN TO THE BACK-BONE.

We have supposed that it was generally understood when the "voting machines" were spoken of, that Irish Catholics were intended. We know of no Protestant of any nationality who can be moved about in obedience to the beck or nod of any party or any priests. We know no people of any faith or any nation that are put to such base uses as the Irish of the Romish Church. Germans, French, Italians, and Hungarians, though professing the Catholic Religion, hold it in subordination to the demands of common morality. The Irish only are led by the nose to the commission of acts which make men blush for Catholicism.

Let Not Your Motives be Misconstrued.

When Bludgeon Brooks struck down Charles Sumner in his seat in the Senate, Mr. Douglas would not interfere "lest his motives should be misconstrued." If you interfere now between Mr. Douglas and the uplifted arm of Justice your motives may be misconstrued.

How to Vote for Lincoln.

So prominent have been the two rival candidates for the U. S. Senate in the present canvass that not a few suppose they are to vote tomorrow directly for Lincoln or Douglas. This is not the case. United States Senators are elected by the State Legislatures Those persons, therefore, who desire the election of Mr. Lincoln can only promote that object by voting for the Republican candidates for the Legislature. Every vote for them is a vote for Lincoln and against Douglas.

Voters, Remember

That Stephen A. Douglas repealed the Missouri Compromise which prohibited slavery in Kansas and Nebraska. Remember that bloodshed, turmoil, slavery extension, the Dred Scott decision and the Lecompton Constitution, have been the logical and sole fruits of that measure.

The Indiana Kidnapping Case.

[From the Louisville. Courier, Oct. 28.]

It affords us great satisfaction to announce that, in all probability, there has been a complete settlement of the late unhappy difficulties growing out of the capture of Horace Bell, on Saturday last, by unauthorized Louisville officers. The delegation which proceeded to Brandenburg on the ferry boat had an interview with the citizens of that place, and returned home yesterday morning. They found that the people of Brandenburg were laboring under no undue excitement, and acted in the matter with perfect coolness. The understanding was that Bell would be tried in Brandenburg, and reasonable bail taken. Messrs. Cannon and Austin, and two other gentlemen of New Albany, remained to accompany Bell home.

Voters Remember!

That Stephen A. Douglas in 1856 struck out of the Toombs bill the clause providing for a submission of the constitution of Kansas to a vote of the people; and that he inserted another EXPLICITLY PREVENTING SUCH SUBMISSION.

State Banks of Iowa.

[Correspondence of the Davenport Gazette.]

IOWA CITY, Oct. 27, 1858.

The Board of Directors of the State Bank of Iowa, composed of three persons appointed by the Legislature and one from each of the branch banks, met at Iowa City on Wednesday, the 27th inst. All were present save E. H. Wilson, Esq., of Clayton Co., (who was elected District Judge at the recent election,) as follows:

Hoyt Sherman, of Polk County, and Benjamin Lake, of Clinton County on the part of the State.

S. J. Kirkwood, Iowa City Branch;
S. F. Miller, Keokuk	"
W. G. Smith, Oskaloosa	"
T. Whiting, Mt. Pleasant	"
Hiram Price, Davenport	"
P. M. Casaday, Des Moines	"
C. Weed, Muscatine	"
Richard Bonson, Dubuque	"

An informal meeting was held in the afternoon, at which the Hon. S. J. Kirkwood presided, and committees were appointed on various subjects. The permanent organization will not be effected until there is a report from the committee on By-Laws. A disposition to organize upon the most economical basis practicable is apparent among the members of the Board. They are expected to meet again on Thursday morning at 8 o'clock.

VOTERS, REMEMBER!

That Stephen A. Douglas said in his Grand Jury speech at Springfield in 1857, that the act creating the Lecompton Convention was "FAIR IN ALL ITS PROVISIONS," and that the said act was A COPY OF THE TOOMBS BILL.

Jones of Tennessee.

A CHAPTER FROM THE RECORD.

HE WOULD HANG "THE WRETCH!"

HIS OPINIONS OF DEMOCRACY IN 1844.

He appeals to PROVIDENCE to Protect the Country against the Bogus Democracy.

GENERAL JACKSON'S OPINION OF HIM.

Ex-Gov. Jones, of Tennessee, is advertised to speak, in this city, in behalf of Senator Douglas. We have already given our readers a portion of his record, and we herewith repeat it with additions, in order that all may see how great a man he is, and be duly prepared to throw up their hats in honor of the man who proposed to HANG American citizens for an honest expression of opinion on a vitally important question, in which they were personally interested. Read it, and then hurrah for Jones and his master, Douglas! Here it is:

JONES ON HANGING AMERICAN CITIZENS.

On the 25th of Feb., 1856, this man Jones, in reply to Senator Wilson, in his place in the Senate Chamber, said:

"The Senator from Massachusetts read, with much feeling and indignation, a portion of the laws passed by the Legislature of Kansas on the subject of slavery; and I will again read the exxact, in order that it may be understood.

"If any person print, write, introduce into, or publish, or circulate, or cause to be brought into, publishing or circulating within the Territory, any book paper, pamphlet or magazine, handbill or circular, containing any statements, arguments, opinion, sentiment, doctrine, advice or inuendo, calculated to produce a disorderly, dangerous or rebellious disaffection among the slaves in the Territory, or to induce such slaves to escape from the service of their masters, or to resist their authority, he shall be guilty of a felony, and be punished by imprisonment, at hard labor, for a term not less than five years.'

"Sir, I would make the law which the Senator quoted a little different. Instead of making it a Penitentiary offence I would hang the wretch until he is dead, DEAD, DEAD."—[See Appendix to Congressional Globe, 1st session, 34th Congress, p. 101.]

JONES ON DEMOCRACY.

The following extracts are from a speech delivered by Gov. J. C. Jones, at Lebanon, Tenn., on Sept. 7th, 1844, and published in the Lebanon Chronicle of the following week:

"But, gentlemen," said Gov. Jones, "if the moral, social and political tendencies of Locofocoism be not counteracted, all that is left of our happy form of government is gone! The toil of our fathers in building this glorious edifice will have been in vain; for the effects, gentlemen, and I believe, intentions of the leaders of this falsely called Democratic party, is to break down all the guards that have been thrown around society for its protection, to tear down with ruthless and sacrilegious hands the very pillars of the temple of Liberty; to throw society back to its original elements of anarchy and confusion, to substitute the will of ONE MAN, or the interest of a party, for the will of a majority and the interest of the whole people. To set at naught the laws, customs and the settled usages of the country at defiance, and make them subservient to the basest of party purposes. What is there so pure or so sacred as to escape their rude and reckless assaults, whenever it has presented an obstacle to the advancement of their leaders or the no less wicked and degrading demands of party? Does the sacred Constitution of our country—that ever glorious and time-honored instrument—the great charter of our liberties—Heaven's best political gift to man—was it not hallowed and ratified by the toil and baptized with the blood of revolutionary sires—does this long cherished and venerated instrument, the purity of which would rebuke the rude touch of any thing short of a political demon, find immunities from their ruthless assaults? No, Sirs! NO!"

In speaking of these charges and others still more severe, Mr. Jones said:

"I have made them on my high responsibility as a man and a gentleman, holding myself responsible here and elsewhere, NOW AND AT ALL TIMES, for the establishment of all that I have said, and if I am not able to do so, I will bear the CURSES OF AN INSULTED PEOPLE REST UPON ME!"

The people will please take notice, and act accordingly. He calls for their curses if he does not prove to be true all that he has said against the bogus Democracy.

JONES ON POLK—DEMOCRATS, READ.

"Of Polk I neglect to say but little, as I can say NOTHING THAT IS GOOD."

* * * "If political sins were to be punished by the retributions of eternity, then has Col. Polk committed enough to damn a thousand worlds like this."

We will only quote the following paragraph from Jones' terrible indictment against the Democracy:

"If a party thus reckless of consequences, thus unmindful of the high and solemn obligations of patriotism, shall be entrusted in power, and, immunity with the most sacred institutions of government, the most valued and cherished safeguards of society, find from their lawless assaults? Will our dearest interests, our most sacred rights, our domestic altars, our household gods, find a security from the foe demon like spirit of aggrandizement and usurpation that party has served to nurse? Locofocoism! No, sirs, there is nothing so pure, or sacred, as to be able to successfully resuke the madness, the spirit, the diety its malice or cupidity. I warn you, my countrymen, to pause, solemnly pause before you give your confidence or support to such a party with such principles and practices. BE NOT DECEIVED WITH THE SIREN SONG OF DEMOCRACY!" saying all is well. Lay not the flattering unction to your souls, that "the country is safe" because it is power. * * ERE ANOTHER FOURTH OF A CENTURY SHALL HAVE MADE UP ITS RECORD, you or your children may, when filled with vain and fruitless regret, curse your own folly and wickedly hugging the iron fetters that bind you to a hopeless destiny! MAY THE GOD OF WASHINGTON, AND SAVE THIS once happy people FROM A FATE SO FEARFUL!!!"

And this same Mr. Jones, of Tennessee, after having wallowed for the last five years in a worse political mire than that which he characterized as Democracy in 1844, now comes before the Old Line Whigs of Illinois, to beseech them to follow his own apostacy, and join with him in chanting the praises of the traducer and slanderer of their patriotic and gallant old leader, Henry Clay! Whigs, do you believe the Democracy of to-day is the same pure, patriotic or deserving of your support than in '44? Has its Syren Song any charms for you?

SOUTHERN OPINION OF HIM.

The Nashville Union, of Oct. 8, 1844, says of Gov. Jones:

"He never saw the day in his life when he would have given the first joint of his little finger to have saved his Redeemer from crucifixion."

GEN. JACKSON'S OPINION.

Gen. Jackson, in writing to Col. Russell, in 1844, speaking of Gov. Jones, says:

"He is the most ARCH HYPOCRITE the world was ever cursed with."

The first of the above extracts may be found on page 373 of the "Spirit of '76," published at Nashville, in 1844, and the other on page 295 of the same publication.

That stern old Democrat Gen. Jackson, knew the worth of Jones, and branded him accordingly; but it remained for the bogus Democracy of Illinois to discover his virtues.

Personal and Political.

The last ten millions of the forty millions authorized last winter is likely to be wanted soon. A late Washington letter says:

The Treasury Department is a scene of bustle; clerks are getting up the statistics for the Secretary's report. A week ago it was not deemed advisable to advertise for the remaining $10,000 000 of the loan authorized by Congress, but now it is hard to say that it will not be demanded before the commencement of the approaching session.

—A new Secretary of State is wanted in Indiana. Daniel McClure, the present Secretary, has been appointed Paymaster in the Army, with the rank of Major and a salary of $3,500 per year. If he accepts, as he probably will, Gov. Willard will have to appoint a substitute.

—Gen. B. F. Stringfellow, the distinguished Kansas Ruffian, is about to take up his residence at Memphis, Tenn. He is in too bad odor to remain in Missouri.

—The statement that Senator Fitch and his hunting party had been seriously molested in Missouri, was an exaggeration. Some half dozen drunken savages broke three guns they found in a wagon, but afterwards apologized for it. No serious opposition to the progress of the hunting party was made.

—Lucille and Helen Weston, two actresses, have sued the Cincinnati Gazette for $10,000 damages, for saying that they were "the sisters of Charles Mathews' Little Arrangement, videlicit, Lizzie Weston Davenport."

—Alvah Hunt, a distinguished politician of Brooklyn, New York, was struck down with paralysis on Saturday week, and died on Thursday morning last. Mr. Hunt, until within the last three or four years, had been an enterprising merchant of Greene, Chenango county. He was for five years a State Senator, and for two years State Treasurer. He was a man of sterling qualities, both of head and heart. He was widely known, universally respected, and greatly beloved by those who knew him well, says the Post. He was 60 years old.

—Theodore Parker's illness has assumed a favorable turn. It is not now believed that he has the consumption.

—Dr. Randolph, a celebrated Spiritualist, has openly recanted. In a lecture at Utica, on Sunday last, he stated it as his candid opinion, founded upon an experience of nine years as a medium, that Spiritualism was one-third imposture, one-third insanity and one-third diabolism. Mr. Randolph declares that insanity is the usual fate of trance mediums. He has received and accepted a call to the Christian ministry.

The Break between France and Portugal on the Negro Question.

[Correspondence of the N. Y. Evening Post.]

LISBON, Oct. 13, 1858.

The traffic in negroes, which the French Government has endeavored to legalize by a species of engagement for a term of years, has at length been almost the cause of a rupture between that country and Portugal. "It appears that the Charles et Georges," a French ship with a cargo of negroes, put into a Portuguese harbor in the island of Mozambique. The authorities there took possession of her, and sent her to Lisbon for adjudication. The French Government, taking umbrage at such a step, dispatched two vessels of war to the Tagus, the commanders of which neglected to salute, as customary, on their arrival. The King of Portugal naturally felt indignant at such a palpable affront, but, being admitted to an audience, the captains offered a suitable apology. The restitution of a friendly power has, however, been accepted by the two parties, so the apprehended breeze will probably die away.

The Farm and Garden.

Tazewell County Fair—School Children's Pic-Nic at the Fair—Trial of Steam Plows—Trial of Plows.

It is a source of gratification that, notwithstanding the hard times and the present hotly contested election which is engrossing so much of the public mind, the County Agricultural Societies are presenting so good an account of themselves. On every hand there is a deep interest taken in the Fairs of these Societies, and only in the show itself but in the attendance. The spirit manifested in their welfare is but another evidence that our people are fully aroused to the importance of not only cultivating the soil, but of cultivating it in the most judicious manner, and that improved seeds and implements are sought after with greater care than heretofore.

Almost every Fair has presented some new feature of attraction or of usefulness. These we expect to see collated by Mr. Secretary Francis in the forthcoming report of the State Agricultural Society, and from which the several Societies may next year be able to make up an improved programme. The proceedings of the Tazewell County Fair is before us, accompanied with a letter from Mr. Lloyd Shaw, in which he says the show was beyond the anticipation of all; and what added greatly to the interest of the occasion Fever and Ague is a Terrible Thing. Of all the ills that flesh is heir to" it is the falsest in its first manifestations. The most unrelenting in its progress, and the most defiant of medical skill. Fever and Ague is more the affliction of the Iron Consumption, because its more easily induced, and therefore more prevalent. It marks its victims for the grave like an executioner's bond. Day by day the suffe er grows weaker and weaker, and each hour done by the sun is adoring countenances of approaching the tomb. We have said that the disease is one of those that have nearly always defied medical science—a few cases once and a while have been cured and relieved. We are happy to announce that Dr. J. Hostetter, of Pittsburgh, has prepared a compound that has never been known to fail in curing the worst cases of this terrible disease. We have used it ourself, and also in our families' service, do cheerfully recommend it as an effectual remedy for Fever and Ague.

All those who are afflicted with any Chronic disease considered incurable, will receive a Large pamphlet information which will insure a speedy and permanent cure by sending their names and stamp (prepay ost postage) to Dr. E. Sawyer's Fluid Extract of Bark, an infallible remedy for the Fever and Ague, and the various forms of Bilious Diseases. Intermittent, Remittent, Chill Fever and Dumb Ague, having their origin in malaria of very fertile and marshy districts, prepared by Dr. A. B. Sawyer, Druggist and Chemist, and sold by Sawyer, Pape & Co., No. 16 Lake street, Chicago.

This remedy is prepared entirely from vegetable substances, and contains no mercury, arsenic, or anything that can prove in jurious to the system. Its effects are those of a decobstruent and tonic, well a.apted to restore the healthy action of the Liver and Stomach, whose functions are so generally impaired in this class of diseases.

Quinine and other tonics serve only in many cases to break the chills, but do not remove the diseases of the liver and other organs, which, if unrelieved, is the fruitful source of the evil. Fever and Ague depend; hence the usefulness of the "Fluid Extract of Bark," (particularly in regions where Physicians cannot be readily consulted), which contains all the qualities attributed to the infallible Peruvian Bark.

Hundreds of testimonials in regard to the efficacy of the medicine from persons of unquestionable, have been given to the proprietor—but he does not make use of them as it is known to have the medicine introduce itself securely by its merits.

Dyspepsia and Fits.—Dr. O. Phillips BROWN, The Great Cure of Consumption, was for several years so badly afflicted with Dyspepsia that for a part of the time he was confined to his bed. He was eventually cured by a prescription furnished him by a young clairvoyant girl. This prescription, given him by a mere child, while in a trance, has cured everybody who has taken it—never having failed once. It is equally applicable in cases of Fluxa Dysentia. The ingredients may be found in any Drug Store. I will send this prescription to any person on the receipt of one stamp to pay postage. Address DR. O. PHILLIPS BROWN, sep14-26t Box 91 Cranford, Union County, N. J.

Hostetter's Bitters—For sale by Rahmeicek & DAVIS, 118 Randolph street. 3ald

Charles' London Cordial Gin.—The Original and only London Gin Imported. This Gin, distilled in London from sound Barley, under the personal supervision of the Exporters, is particularly recommended to invalids as a beverage of rare excellence. Our brands of Four Crown and Anchor are identical with the choicest brands of the Italian Juniper Berry, and some of the most valuable medicinal properties of the Vegetable Kingdom, rendering it in the highest degree grateful and refreshing to men, the purest and safest stimulant or diuretic drink in use.

It is a delicious tonic, of a soft and delicate flavor, differing entirely from any other Gin, and devoid of that harsh, acrid taste, which renders the article known as Holland Gin or Schiedam objectionable.

Though not intended as a medicine, it is recommended by physicians generally in cases of Dyspepsia, Gout, Rheumatism, Drapsy, Bravel, Colic, Cholera, Kidney Affections, Stricture, Diseases of the Urinary Organs, the Kidneys and the Bowels, Nervous Debility, &c., while the weaker sex will find by its adoption a sure relief from those distressing annoyances which frequently attend their delicate organization.

Dr. Valentine Mott, of New York, the highest medical authority, pronounces Charles' London Cordial Gin "not an imposition to any other, but the best article of the kind he has ever seen."

It is peculiarly adapted to settlers in the Southern and Western States, as well as for travellers exposed to changes of water and air.

For sale in quarts at seventy-five cents, and pints thirty-eight cents, by all Druggists, Grocers, Fruiterers, and Country Merchants, Beware of imitations. Buy only CHARLES' NONE OTHER IS IMPORTED.

May be had in Chicago, Ill., of PENTON, ROBINSON & SMITH, No. 15 South Water street; HAVEN, TERRELL & CO., No. 87 South Water street.

A most Valuable Remedy for Headache.—Dr. S. A. Wilson's Penetrating Catarrhic Anti-Neuralgic Snuff, G. Howard, Pastor of the 1st Baptist Church, Chicago, letter addressed to Messrs. F hoestock & Davis, dated June 18th, 1858, says:—"During the last twenty years have used ~f several variety of medicine to no purpose by Allopathic and Homœopathic physicians, and all have failed; and I had relinquished all hopes of relief, until I was induced to resort to WILSON'S SNUFF. Three applications of it have effected in the most unparalleled instances of late, and I can cheerfully and conscientiously recommend them to others who are similarly affected." This sovereign remedy is for sale by J. H. Reed & Co., Sargent & Haines, Chicago, Ill. P. O. box 2992.

Extension of Stay.—In consequence of the increasing demands of his patrons in this city, DR. E. READ-MAN finds it necessary to defer his visit to New Orleans, and will remain in Chicago until further notice. Office and rooms, Sherman House.

Dr. J. Read, may be consulted fully relative to the nature and treatment of Diseases of the Lungs, Heart, Liver, Kidneys, Nervous Complaints, and all Chronic Diseases, at their Rooms No. 100 Lake street, corner of Washington, Office hours from 9 o'clock A. THE APPALLING TRAGEDY IN NEW YORK.

Murder most Foul and Unnatural.

PARRICIDE, FRATRICIDE AND SUICIDE.

FULL PARTICULARS.

From the New York papers of Thursday we make up the following account of the unparalleled tragedy that occurred in that city on Tuesday evening:

One of the most horrible and bloody tragedies ever enacted occurred at the dwelling house No. 217 West Thirtieth street, on Tuesday night. A father, husband, mother, two children and two female domestics, were butchered by a revengeful son, who subsequently retired to his bedroom and there ended his earthly career by blowing his brains out with a pistol. The above premises were occupied by a wealthy retired lumber merchant, named Francis Gouldy.

The family consisted of his wife Jane, his sons Francis A., aged nineteen years; Nathaniel, aged twelve years; and Charles, aged six years; three daughters—Mary Elizabeth, aged seven years; Jane, aged five years; and Catherine, an infant; and two domestics, named Joanna Murphy and Elizabeth Carr.

WHAT LED TO THE TRAGEDY.

It appears, from what our reporters could learn, that the eldest boy, Francis A. Gouldy, was a young man of unsteady habits, and often caused his father annoyance in consequence of his wild and extravagant mode of living. He also had the habit of staying out late at night, contrary to the express desire of his parents, and when hard pushed for money would not answer with a example of how he obtain the same. Many times during the past three months ago the father deposited the sum of $50 in one of the savings banks to the credit of his son, with the understanding that it was not to be touched until the son should go into business. Being short of funds, young Gouldy extracted the book from his father's desk during the week, and the following day drew the sum of $10, with which he went on a frolic. The breach of trust was discovered by the father on Tuesday, and when his son came home, about ten o'clock that night, he spoke to him about it.

QUARREL BETWEEN FATHER AND SON.

The youth endeavored to excuse himself by saying that the money belonged to him, as his father had promanded him for his conduct, but the only reply he got was a low, chuckling laugh, full of meaning and fiendish hatred, as the sequel has only proved. The family had all retired for the night when young Gouldy came home. Mr. Gouldy, Sen., was waiting up for his son, and when the latter came in he found his father alone in the front bedroom, on the second floor. Mrs. Gouldy being in bed in the back room, and dining. After "Frank," he was generally called, had left his father with the intention of going up stairs to bed, the former informed his wife of the result of the conversation, and remarked that there was something wrong about the laugh that Frank gave vent to when he took his departure. Mr. Gouldy continued to sit up in the front room, while his wife returned to the rear bedroom and went to bed.

MURDER OF THE FATHER—MRS. GOULDY ATTACKED.

In about fifteen minutes after the occurrence of the conversation just related between Mr. and Mrs. Gouldy, the latter was alarmed by hearing a scuffle and a heavy fall in the front room. Hastily jumping out of bed, to ascertain the cause of the disturbance, she was met at the doorway by her son Frank, with a pistol and cutlass axe, exclaimed, "Oh, mother! Oh, mother!" and then, before she could scarce make any reply, he seized her with the weapon several blows on the head, felling her to the floor.

SLAYING THE CHILDREN.

The demon then rushed from the room, and passing into the hallway, met his brothers, Nathaniel and Charles, who, alarmed at the noise, were already kneeling by the side of their prostrate father. Again the evil spirit took possession of the youth, and the fatal axe was descended upon the heads of his kindred. Nathaniel was frightfully cut about the head, but his brother Charles was not so unfortunate, as he escaped with comparatively trifling injury.

THE ASSAULT ON THE DOMESTICS.

Leaving his father, mother and two brothers prostrate and weltering in their blood, the murderer ascended to the third floor, where his sister, Mary Elizabeth, and the two servants, Joanna Murphy and Elizabeth Carr, slept. Here Frank encountered the two domestics, who, alarmed at the cries of Mrs. Gouldy, were about rushing down stairs, when they were confronted by the murderer. The girls endeavored to escape from the fury of the young man, but in vain. He hacked at them right and left, and in an instant they, too, were among the number of his victims.

MIRACULOUS ESCAPE.

While the servant were being killed, Mary Elizabeth, the sister of the young, opened the bedroom door and beheld the terrible spectacle. Thinking that there were burglars in the house, and that her brother was endeavoring to protect the household from violence, she hastily retreated, and locking her door anxiously awaited the result. It was a fortunate thing she did not know the real state of affairs, for had she not thought there were thieves in the dwelling she would most assuredly have rushed out of the room and received her death blow at the hands of her brother.

THE POLICE GET THE ALARM.

After recovering from the shock produced by witnessing the bloody scene in the hallway, Mary ran to her window and cried out "Murder! Murder!" so hastily that the attention of policemen Hall and Morehouse, of the Twentieth precinct police, who were standing on the corner of Ninth avenue and Thirty-first street, were attracted to the spot. On coming up to the house the police were again saluted with the cry of "Murder!" and "Help!" They endeavored to gain admittance by opening the hall door, but finding it was locked they were forced to burst it open. On entering the dwelling and ascending the stairway a horrible spectacle was presented to their view.

A BLOODY SPECTACLE.

Mrs. Gouldy was standing on the stairway in her night clothes, covered from head to foot with gore, while her husband lay upon the bedroom floor in convulsions, with his face and head bathed in blood. In the hallway, close beside their father's bedroom door, lay the boys Nathaniel and Charles, the former insensible and apparently dead, and the latter, to all appearances, in little better condition. Farther on another scene of bloodshed and violence met the view of the officers. In the hallway of the third story the two servants lay weltering in their blood, one of them being unconscious, while the other was tossing her arms in wild delirium, and uttering imprecations upon the head of the destroyer.

SUICIDE OF THE MURDERER.

But even here the tide of human blood did not rest. In the back bedroom, on this floor, the author of the appalling tragedy lay gasping in the agonies of death. He had fired a bullet through a three-barreled pistol, with which he had concluded the last act of the tragedy by blowing his brains out. He was still living when the police arrived, but in a few seconds afterwards he uttered a deep groan, and then all was still as death. The murderer of his father, mother and brother, had gone to his last account, and by his own hand. After the indiscriminate slaughter of the entire household, as already described, Frank pulled off his boots and coat, and putting on a morning gown, proceeded to his own bedroom, and there completed the work by offering up himself as a sacrifice.

HORROR OF THE NEIGHBORS.

The neighbors in the adjoining houses, alarmed by the oft-repeated cries of murder, hurried to the spot, and in a few moments the house was full of people, whose horror at witnessing the scene was beyond description. Three members of the family alone escaped the wrath of the revengeful youth, namely, Mary Elizabeth, and her two sisters Jane and Catherine. The escape of the former was most miraculous. Jane and Catherine were in the same bedroom with their mother, and as the neighbors passed into the room, the youngest one jumped out of bed, and joyously exclaimed "I'm not hurt." A corps of medical men were promptly in attendance and rendered valuable assistance to the wounded. From one of the doctors our reporter got the following facts relative to the condition of the injured parties when examined by the physicians:

CONDITION OF THE WOUNDED.

Mr. Gouldy, the father, was struck upon the left side of the skull, in two places, the axe entering into the substance of the brain. A large piece of bone, nearly as large as the palm of one's hand, was detached by the surgeon, and with it came portions of the substance of the brain. The wound was partially closed, a sufficient opening being left for the passage of fluids. The case is considered hopeless. The patient is wholly unconscious, and in all probability cannot recover.

Mrs. Gouldy, the mother, who is enceinte, received three wounds upon the head, two of which were scalp wounds, from one to two inches in length. The third wound penetrated the substance of the brain about two inches above the right ear. Three small pieces of bone were removed, and the wounds closed. In addition to these she received two punctured blows upon her right arm, causing severe contusions. The patient complains of acute pain from the wounds upon her arm than from those on her head. Hopes are entertained of her recovery, as she is comparatively comfortable, but her condition is extremely critical and her injuries very dangerous.

The boy Nathaniel received a blow on the right side of the head, cutting up the scalp for three inches, and detaching a large piece of the temporal bone, with portions of the parietal bone, several pieces of which were removed. His condition is also extremely critical. Consciousness, however, is perfect.

Charles, the boy of five, received a blow about an inch and a half from the median line near the vertex, which communicated with the substance of the brain. The edges of the wound were brought together, and the condition of the patient is comfortable but dangerous.

Joanna Murphy had a cut four inches in length over the left parietal bone, fracturing the skull; the blade of the axe penetrated the dura materi, causing delirium. Joanna is twenty-three years of age, and has been in the employment of Mr. Gouldy for three years. She will be conveyed to the New York Hospital, where she now lies in a very low condition.

Elizabeth Carr, nurse, has three wounds on the head, the most severe of a circular form to the right occipital bone, and five inches in diameter. Then there were two scalp wounds on the left side of the head, over the parietal bone, and two similar wounds on the right side of the head.

APPEARANCE OF THE SUICIDE MURDERER.

Frank, who murdered and committed suicide, was shot through the right parietal bone, the ball entering a little above and behind the ear, and lodging in the substance of the brain. The aperture in the skull caused by the entrance of the ball was nearly two inches in diameter. From the cavity the brain oozed in large quantities and gushed from the mouth and nose. The deceased lay on his back with his feet towards the door, and, covered with gore, as he was, the spectacle presented was a most horrible one indeed.

EXCITEMENT IN THE NEIGHBORHOOD.

The excitement of the neighbors was intense. Thousands flocked to the scene of the tragedy, all anxious to gain admittance to the theatre of the bloody carnival. From midnight until daylight the next morning the inhabitants continued to throng the streets in front of the house. Inspector Curry, of the Twentieth precinct police, was early in attendance, and with a platoon of men preserved order. The most exaggerated accounts had gone forth concerning the tragedy, and all sorts of questions were asked by the bystanders, with a view to learn the true facts in the case. Every one had his own theory of the cause and origin of the difficulty. Some attributed it to insanity, some to passion, some to revenge, and others to despair, occasioned by losses at gambling. The wayward character of young Gouldy was well known to the neighbors, and not a few of them had personal cognizance of his undutiful and extravagant course of life.

MRS. GOULDY'S VERSION OF THE TRAGEDY.

During the morning of yesterday, and before the Coroner arrived at the premises, Mrs. Gould

COMMERCIAL.

Commercial and Money Matters.

SATURDAY EVENING, Oct. 30.

MONEY, EXCHANGE, &c.—The money market exhibits no change whatever. Exchange is 1 per cent. Bank discounts 10 per cent. with plenty of money for all legitimate business purposes. Gold 1@1¼. Street rates 1½@2 per cent. per month.

COMMERCIAL.—The Flour market was firm today, and several hundred barrels choice brands were sold at a shade higher figures, to supply the lumber region during the winter. The demand for shipment, however, is very light, and shipping brands are dull.

The Wheat market opened very quiet, but on Change it grew brisker, and prices advanced. Winter Wheat was in active request. About 10,000 bu changed hands at 94@96c for No. 1 Red in store, and 81@84c for No. 2 in store. Spring Wheat opened at 61@62c for No. 2, but advanced before the close to 64@64½c, with an active demand. The sales of the day foot up about 50,000 bushels.

There was a good inquiry for Corn, which is still very scarce. The sales were very limited at 53c@54c for No. 1 in store, and 45c for Rejected.

Oats are quiet but firm. Barley dull. Highwines steady.

Hinsdale & Babcock, of this city, received today the first lot of the new crop of New Orleans Sugars. They found a ready market at 7½c cash.

The Hog market is still active and prices tend upward. A packer contracted to-day for 200 Hogs, to be delivered on the 10th of November, at $4 35 per 100 lbs gross—the Hogs to average 250 lbs gross. The range for Fat Hogs for present delivery is $3 20@$4 40.

There is a good demand for fat Cattle but this steers are dull.

Freights are still dull and low. The rates to Buffalo to-day were 3c for wheat, and 10½c for wheat from Racine to Montreal.

The Peoria Transcript, of Wednesday, contains the following:

We cannot vouch for the correctness of the following statement, although we know of many who, upon its basis, estimate the price they receive for their Corn when fed to swine:

From carefully conducted experiments by different persons, it has been ascertained that one bushel of Corn will make a little over 18½ lbs of Pork—gross. Taking this result as a basis, the following deductions are made which every farmer would do well to lay by for future reference—

When Corn costs	12½c	9 bu. Pork costs	18c	9 lb.

" " "	20c	" "	30c	"

The foreign exports of breadstuffs from the United States to Europe, continue on a very limited scale. The total shipments to Great Britain from September 1st to latest dates were as follows:

	Flour, bbls.	Wheat, bush.	Corn bush.
1859	48,000	277,641	804,450
1858	118,000	1,231,774	843,097

The Albany Barter Market of Thursday last is thus reported by the Statesman:

Barley is moderately active; the receipts are light; sales 1400 bushels choice at 75c for the remnant of a load, at 96c; 2,505 bu Canada East, last evening, 87 1/2, and to day 4,000 do do 90c; 900 bu Canadaigna, 92c; 1,000 bu Canada West, 95c, and 2,500 do fair State four-rowed, 96c.

New York Market.

BY TELEGRAPH.] NEW YORK, Oct. 30.

FLOUR—Demand for Flour chiefly for Eastern trade and prices generally without material change. Shipping brands round-hoop Ohio are very scarce and bring full prices. Sales 10,000 bbls at $5 95@6 for unsound to fair, $6 50 for sound State; $4 65@4 70 for extra Ohio, $4 15@4 40 for superfine western, $4 60@4 90 for common to extra do, $5 30@6 for shipping brands of extra round hoop Ohio. Market closing quiet. Canadian unchanged. Sales 220 bbls at $4 90@5 for common to choice extra. Rye 100 bbls Rye flour at $3 20@3 40.

GRAIN—There is scarcely anything doing in wheat. Supply offering is light, while holders are generally disposed to make concessions. Shippers are not in the market to any material extent, and the local trade refuse to buy more than sufficient to supply prompt wants. Sales 6,000 bushels white K. tuckey and Southern at $1 40. Rye is dull, at 85@87c for inferior to prime. Barley very heavy and lower; sales 7,000 bushels, 74@80c for two rowed, 91@95c for four rowed State. Corn quiet and much heavier; 25,000 bushels sold at 58@59c for common to good mixed Western, 59c for prime Western yellow. Oats steady, at 46@46c for State, and 44@45c for Western. New York Cattle Market.

WEDNESDAY, Oct. 27.

BEEVES—The supply of Beef Cattle in the various yards has been large, that of last week, the receipts of which reached 11 3 for over 10,000 head. The quality of the cattle, however, have been somewhat inferior. The demand, therefore, was no large and the supply fully equal to it. The quality of the cattle at market was declined y good, they being superior to any that have been sold here for some time past. Price, however, remain without change, though it is possible that a slight concession could be made in the average of the sales. The transactions were at prices within the range of a few of the poorest cattle at the low price, most of the sales being at about the 8@9c, and for those of the better cattle at 9@10c. There was a good business done at Bergen, offer, last head last week, 1,200.

MILCH COWS—The supply continues moderate, and with but few buyers, the transactions are to a greater extent by the consignees will continue of moderate.

VEALERS—There is a good demand, and with a moderate supply, prices are well sustained. We quote the range of 3½@6c, the latter price being for c oice qualities.

SHEEP AND LAMBS—The arrivals are not large, and show a decline of nearly one half on those of last week. The demand is moderately active, and prices have not improved a shade. The prices obtained range from 4c to 6c per lb.

SWINE—The arrivals continue large, and with a very limited demand prices are lower.

EXILES OF FLORIDA,

NOW READY.

THE SUBSCRIBERS TAKE PLEASURE in announcing that they have now a fresh supply of this remarkable work, of which the DEMAND HAS BEEN GREATER THAN EVER BEFORE.

"The escaped Negroes and Seminoles of Florida have constituted a community which has thus done their deeds, their wrongs and their sufferings have been severally upon others connected with them.

"No one may have borne somewhat habituated to deeds and scenes wilder of his own peculiar coloring to his own prejudices. He is, however, truthful and only vented when he has been provoked. No one can help warming in indignation with him as they read of the base wrongs of which he is publishing to the poor descendent of the Seminoles."—[Daily Wisconsin.
